The wedding of Miss Mary Pickering and Thomas B. Brighton took place yesterday noon at the temple, the ceremony being performed by President John H. Winder. In the evening a reception to 150 guests was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Pickering, on K street. The house was beautifully decorated throughout with a profusion of flowers, asters and nasturtiums being used with pretty effect. In the dining room streamers of smilax extended from the chandelier to the table, where a large vase of purple asters formed the centerpiece. A color scheme of red was carried out with geraniums and nasturtiums in the back parlor, while pink and white asters were used in the front parlor. Here a wedding bell was suspended from a canopy of the flowers and under this the bridal couple stood. The bride was attended by Miss Birdetta Snowball as the maid of honor, and Sidney Brighton, a brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

Those who assisted in receiving were Mrs. Thomas Hodder, Mrs. J. F. Perington and Mrs. J. Fred Evans, while the assistants in serving were Mrs. Estella Snowball, Mrs. Thomas Snowball and Miss Millie Harding. The punch bowl was presided over by Miss Eula Ferry and Miss Frances Ringwood.

The bride wore a gown of white embroidered net over tulle, made on train with empire effect, and her bouquet was of white bride's roses in shower effect, with white satin streamers. Miss Snowball was gowned in pale blue silk, and carried pink and white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Brighton will make their home at Bingham, where they will be at home to friends after Oct. 1.

One of Tuesday's hostesses will be Mrs. C. E. Warren, who will entertain this evening with an informal affair to be given at her home on South Tenth East street.

Mrs. S. O. S. Nelden and her sons, Paul and Ralph Nelden, will entertain a number of the young college boys and girls with a five hundred party to be given this evening at their home on P street.

A bridge party will be given this evening by Mrs. R. W. Hill at her home in the Calhoun apartments, the affair being complimentary to Miss Ruby Lamborne and Miss Katherine Adams, who will leave soon for the east.

Miss Mildred Brown, a September bride, will be the honored guest at a parcel shower to be given this evening by Miss Zella Gallacher at her home on East First South street.

Miss Lucile Snow will be the guest of honor at a china shower to be given this evening by Mrs. P. H. Irwin on P street.

The Ohio male chorus, which gives a concert this evening, will be entertained with a trolley ride this afternoon, and after the concert an informal reception will be held in their honor at the First Methodist church.

Miss Bess McMillan will be the complimented guest at a bridge tea to be given at the Country club Friday, with Miss Charlotte Holmes as hostess.

A luncheon will be given by Mrs. William McCaskill at the Country club Wednesday in honor of Mrs. O. J. Salisbury.

Mrs. William Cunningham will be the hostess at a dinner party to be given Saturday evening, the guests of honor being Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Townes of Chicago, who are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Dinwoodey.

Friday evening Mrs. Dinwoodey will also entertain in their honor.

A morning bridge followed by a luncheon will be given on Wednesday by Mrs. J. E. Galtner, the affair to be given at the Country club.
